Gardening with the Cape Fear Garden Club

Garden Club members planting at the YWCA, 1974

Sunday, June 4, 2017 • 1:30–4:30 p.m. • Free!

When should you trim your azaleas? How do you attract local birds to your yard? What's trendy in gardening? Join the following Cape Fear Garden Club members to explore gardening in our region.

- Jill Peleuses, owner of Wild Bird & Garden
- Sarah Anderson, owner of Joyscapes
- Karen Root, master gardener and Cape Fear Garden Club member
- Sherry O'Daniell, Wilmington Tree Commission and Alliance for Cape Fear Trees

Kids can enjoy the Gardening in Nature series produced by NHCS-TV. Learn about azalea care with a specially-produced NC Azalea Festival video.

Cape Fear Garden Club, Inc. Wilmington, N.C.

cape fear museum of history and science

814 Market St.
Downtown Wilmington
Free On-site Parking
910.798.4350
capefearmuseum.com

New Hanover County • North Carolina • Established 1729